ESTIMATED DELIVERY DATE:

The delivery date is quoted as 'estimated' because the equipment we manufacture is built to order and to our customer's specifications. This estimate is made under the assumption that there will be no interruptions of labor, material shortages, or any environmental or other unforeseen circumstances.

LHI is not responsible for any installation or production costs resulting from actual delivery dates which exceed the quoted estimated delivery dates. Accurate dates for the delivery will not be available until the equipment is in the manufacturing phase. If there are custom features for the quoted equipment then accurate delivery dates will be available when testing is complete. Please consult with the factory for updates to the expected delivery date.

NOTE: PRICING DOES NOT REFLECT FACTORY'S 7% MATERIALS SURCHARGE
